Maximum Loan Amount Worksheet

The maximum amount you can borrow from your account is $50,000 or 50% of the account balance, whichever is less. However, the amount must be reduced by your highest outstanding loan balance over the past 12 months (which, only applies if you have previously taken a loan from a 457 or qualified 401 plan). The minimum amount you can borrow is $1,000.

EXAMPLE 1

Michael has never taken a loan from his account before and his 457 plan account balance at the close of business yesterday was $84,000. To calculate the maximum loan amount he is eligible to receive, we need to determine if 50% of his account balance ($84,000 × 50% = $42,000) is greater than or less than $50,000. In this case, 50% of his account balance is less than $50,000, so the maximum loan amount Michael is eligible to receive is $42,000.

EXAMPLE 2

Kathy has never taken a loan from her account before and her 401 plan account balance at the close of business yesterday was $240,000. In this case, 50% of Kathy’s balance ($240,000 × 50% = $120,000) is greater than $50,000, so the maximum loan amount Kathy is eligible to receive is $50,000 (the lesser of the two amounts).

EXAMPLE 3

Pam took a $15,000 loan from her account eight months ago (in the previous calendar year) and her 457 plan account balance at the close of business yesterday was $130,000. In this case, 50% of Pam’s balance ($130,000 × 50% = $65,000) is greater than $50,000, but that amount must also be reduced by her highest outstanding loan balance over the past 12 months, so the maximum loan amount Pam is eligible to receive is $35,000. ($50,000 – $15,000 = $35,000)

Employer Signature: ___________________________ Date: ___/___/___

Name (Please Print): ___________________________ Title: ___________________________
ADDITIONAL INFORMATION
The plan sponsor establishes the rules for the plan’s loan program. If you have questions about the loan rules applicable to your plan, please contact ICMA-RC.

Eligibility
Only active employees are eligible to request a new loan or refinance an existing one. The plan sponsor may allow loans to be taken for any reason or restrict loans to hardship situations only.

Maximum Number of Loans*
You may receive one new loan or refinance one loan per calendar year. Plans may allow up to five loans to be outstanding at one time.

Loan Amount
The maximum amount of all loans to a participant from the Plan and all other plans that are either 457(h) plans or qualified employer plans under Section 72(p)(4) of the Code (e.g., 401(a) plans) shall not exceed the lesser of:

1. $50,000, or
2. One-half of the value of your account.

When calculating the maximum amount you are eligible to borrow, the lesser value of (1) or (2) above must be reduced by your highest outstanding loan balance over the last 12 months. The minimum loan amount is $1,000.

DISCLOSURES

Origination and Annual Maintenance Fees
A $75* origination fee is charged when your loan request is processed and a $50* maintenance fee is charged annually. These fees are deducted directly from your retirement plan account. You may want to consider other sources for small loans, as the fees for taking a loan from your employer-sponsored retirement plan may be significant in relation to the size of the loan.

*MAY DIFFER FOR SOME PLANS.

ACH Payment Rejected Fee
If a loan repayment scheduled to be paid via ACH debit is rejected due to insufficient funds, invalid bank account information, or account closure, a fee will be charged to your account. The fee is $20 for the first occurrence and $50 for each subsequent occurrence.

Loans from Other Plans
Outstanding loans from employer-sponsored retirement plans, including those with ICMA-RC and any plans with other providers, may reduce the amount you are eligible to borrow. IRS regulations require that you take any such loans into consideration when determining the amount you are eligible to borrow.

Deemed Distributions
If a scheduled payment is still unpaid at the end of the calendar quarter following the calendar quarter in which the payment was due, any outstanding loan amount will be treated as a distribution. The principal balance and accrued interest will be reported to the IRS as a taxable distribution. Plan sponsors are obligated to comply with federal regulations regarding the administration of the plan’s loan program and must monitor loan repayments to help prevent against loans being treated as distributions.

Loan Repayment Terms
The repayment terms, including the interest rate, amount and frequency will be based on the options you select and cannot be changed once you accept the loan terms by signing and cashing/depositing the loan check. Loan repayments reduce the outstanding loan balance by the amount of the repaid principal. Interest paid is credited as earnings on the investment in the note.

Please be aware that if you elect to make loan repayments via payroll deduction, you will not be able to change to ACH debit repayments after separating from service with the plan sponsor.

Paying Your Loan Off Early
You may elect to make additional loan repayments to pay down or completely pay off an outstanding loan without being subject to a penalty or additional fee. If you elect to pay down the loan through additional repayments, each additional repayment will be applied forward to both principal and interest, as specified in the original repayment schedule.

Please note that no payment date may be “skipped” even if you make additional pay-down repayments ahead of schedule. If you elect to completely pay off the loan in the amount shown on your statement as the outstanding balance, no further interest will accrue.

To submit pre-payments, you may forward a cashiers check or money order to the appropriate address listed below. Personal checks are not permitted.

SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES

Qualified Joint and Survivor Annuity
(Appplies to some 401 Plans only)
If you are a married participant withdrawing assets from a 401 plan, and the employer has selected the Qualified Joint and Survivor Annuity as the default form of payment, you and your spouse must also complete the Waiver of Qualified Joint and Survivor Annuity Form. This form is available online at www.icmarc.org/forms or by contacting ICMA-RC.

Roth Assets (if applicable)
If your 457 or 401(k) plan allows Roth contributions, any Roth assets in your account will be included when calculating the amount you are eligible to borrow, but these amounts are generally not available to be included as part of the actual loan.
